An advertisement for a LEGO compatibility checker. The background is a bright yellow. In the center, a blue LEGO instruction manual is partially unrolled, showing step 16 with a minifigure and a building. To the right, a smartphone displays a virtual minifigure in a green shirt and black pants, standing on a blue base. The phone screen also shows a 3D model of the LEGO building from the manual. Several small LEGO minifigures are scattered around the manual and phone. The text on the left lists the compatibility checker in multiple languages, and the URL is provided at the bottom left.
